

Sergeant Patrick Barbar
Saskatoon Police Service
Leadership Award

Sgt. Barbar began his policing career with Saskatoon Police Service August 23, 1999. Since then he has made significant contributions to the Saskatoon Police Service, the City of Saskatoon, and the Province of Saskatchewan. He has represented the Saskatoon Police Service, the Saskatchewan Policing Community, and our Country locally, provincially, nationally, and internationally.

In 2010, Sgt. Barbar travelled to Kandahar City, Afghanistan, as part of the International Police Peace Keeping Operations Team, joining 50 other RCMP and Municipal Police Officers for training of local Afghans who would eventually enter the Afghanistan National Police.

In October of 2014, Sgt. Barbar was assigned to the Combined Traffic Service Saskatchewan Unit – Central Region. He was chosen to lead this new initiative as he possessed the leadership skills and abilities to create a new integrated unit responsible for traffic safety. Sgt. Barbar excelled at the challenge.

Comments from Sgt. Barbar's Operational Supervisor:

1. Plays a vital role in the continued success of the unit from the creation to the present.
2. Displayed initiative and leadership in the unique and challenging tasks of a new integrated unit.
3. Strong leadership and interpersonal skills resulted in careful planning and communication to minimize the potential negative impacts of the integration.
4. Identifies potential risks and implements solutions in a collaborative manner with relevant partners.
5. Well liked by all unit members as he is approachable, outgoing, and shows dedication and accountability to the unit.
6. Clearly leads by example and is a strong team member.
7. Is active in taking lead roles in identifying areas of concern or improvement and implements plans and activities as a result.
8. Plays a lead role in the planning and implementation of coordinating traffic services initiatives throughout the area.

Sgt. Barbar is a proud member of the Saskatoon Police Service who demonstrates exemplary work ethic and strong leadership skills which have been recognized and respected by his peers, partner police agencies, and the community.

The Saskatchewan Association of Chiefs of Police is pleased to present the "Leadership Award" to Sgt. Patrick Barbar.
