

Sgt. Wade Bourassa
Saskatoon Police Service
Leadership Award

Sgt. Bourassa is a Member of the Saskatoon Police Service Air Support Unit.

Sgt. Bourassa was transferred to the Saskatoon Air Support Unit (ASU) in 2013. Since his transfer he has taken a strong leadership role resulting in new equipment and training - elevating the success of the program.

Sgt. Bourassa promotes the ASU within the Saskatoon Police Service, the community, and to other Police Agencies. He shares the success that Saskatoon Police Service has achieved with the deployment of a fixed wing aircraft in a Patrol Capacity. Saskatoon Police Service was one of the first Police Agencies to deploy a fixed wing aircraft in the same manner as larger Police Agencies use helicopters.

Sgt. Bourassa has dedicated numerous hours researching deployment and training.

Sgt. Bourassa has always been willing to share his expertise with others. He has been recognized nationally and internationally as a leader in the Airborne Law Enforcement Field.

Sgt. Bourassa is a passionate advocate for the Saskatoon Police Service Air Support Unit (ASU). He displays passion, leadership, and professionalism through his commitment to enhancing the operational role of the Air Support Unit within the Saskatoon Police Service and Partner Agencies.

The Saskatchewan Association of Chiefs of Police is proud to present Sgt. Wade Bourassa with the Leadership Award.
