Sgt. Ryan Levesque, Cst. Darren Androsoff, Cst. Darcy Burns, Cst. Kim Issel, Cst. Daniel Logan, Cst. Tyson Morash, Curtis Schnitzler, & Sharla Whitford are members of the Prince Albert Police Service who responded to the report of a Child Abduction on July 4, 2017. The child, an eight-year old girl, was abducted from a school yard in Prince Albert.

This cohesive team worked accurately and efficiently gathering information and evidence to quickly have an “Amber Alert” issued. The team applied all available resources to the investigation resulting in the location of the girl in a rural farmyard.

The suspect was arrested later that night and charged with abduction, kidnapping, abandoning a child, criminal negligence, forcible confinement, sexual assault, sexual interference, and invitation to sexual touching.

This was an extraordinary incident dealt with by this efficient team, using investigative techniques and technology. Their efforts resulted in locating the abducted child and the apprehension of the offender.

The Saskatchewan Association of Chiefs of Police is proud to present the team of Sgt. Ryan Levesque, Cst. Darren Androsoff, Cst. Darcy Burns, Cst. Kim Issel, Cst. Daniel Logan, Cst. Tyson Morash, Curtis Schnitzler, and Sharla Whitford with the Excellence in Performance Award.
